

Call to strike

As part of the wage dispute with the employers' association of the private banking sector, called „Arbeitgeberverband des privaten Bankgewerbes e.V.“, the United Services Union, called „Vereinte Dienstleistungsgewerkschaft (ver.di)“ is calling for a strike.

Employees* of the following companies have been called to strike:

UniCredit Bank GmbH
Betrieb Bayern Nord and Betrieb München and UniCredit S.p.A. Zweigniederlassung München.

The strike will take place on

Friday, June 14th, 2024

Start of the strike is at 0:00 am.
End of the strike is at 24:00.

There is no event in presence. We will meet online (via teams) at 1 p.m. for a strike conference. Please use a private device to participate in the strike conference. You will receive the dial-in data separately.

We demand:

- A 12.5 per cent increase in collectively agreed salaries, but at least 500 euros per month
- Salary agreement should also be transferred to ÜT (AT) employees
- Increase in monthly remuneration by 250 euros for junior staff
- Term of 12 months
